Dominican Announces National Honor Society Inductees

WHITEFISH BAY, Wis. – Dominican High School inducted 27 students into its National Honor Society (NHS) at a ceremony held at the school on Wednesday, March 5.

Membership in NHS is based on scholarship, service, leadership and character. Students who qualify academically (GPA of 3.2 or above) are invited to submit a service resume for evaluation by a confidential faculty selection committee.

The students are: Josh Adrian, Isabel Arisso, Shawn Avery, Chloe Black, Molly Brauer, William Bredeson, Sarah Burton, N'Jameh Camara, Jenna Cava, Maura Curtis, Wyatt Engl, Anna Herzfeld, Andrew Kaczmarek, Anton Kovochich, David Lancelle, Teresa Legler, Andrew Lijewski, Mary Linn, Sasha Lorenzo, Catherine Moede, Courtney Neale, Ben O'Connell, Karen Oliva, Paige Radke, Peter Vartanian, Alex Whittle and Rachel Zembrowski.

Dominican High School is a leader in secondary education, providing young men and women with a quality, Catholic college-preparatory education in a supportive and nurturing environment. Founded over 50 years ago by the Sinsinawa Dominicans and based in Whitefish Bay, Wis., Dominican's diverse population draws students from more than 50 grade schools and four counties across southeastern Wisconsin.
