Dominican Recognizes Accomplished Graduates of the Class of 2009

WHITEFISH BAY, Wis. – Dominican High School will hold commencement exercises for the Class of 2009 on Saturday, May 23 at 1:00 p.m. in the DHS auditorium. This year's Valedictorian, David Lancelle and Salutatorian, Mary Linn are outstanding representatives of the talented Class of 2009. David will attend Loyola University of Chicago in the fall while Mary will be attending the Catholic University of America. The 78 students of Dominican's Class of 2009 were collectively offered an impressive $3.2 million dollars in scholarships from colleges and universities nationwide.

Dominican High School is a leader in secondary education, providing young men and women with a quality, Catholic college-preparatory education in a supportive, nurturing environment. Founded over 50 years ago by the Sinsinawa Dominicans and based in Whitefish Bay, Wis., Dominican's diverse population draws students from more than 50 grade schools and four counties across southeastern Wisconsin.
