Dominican's Irish Cultural Club to Host Fundraiser

Proceeds to Help Underwrite Summer Trip to Ireland

WHITEFISH BAY, Wis. – Members of the Dominican High School Irish Cultural Club will host a fundraising event featuring live Irish music, entertainment and student artwork from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 20 at Paddy's Irish Pub, 2339 N. Murray, Milwaukee.

Admission is free, but donations will be accepted. Student and faculty artwork, crafts and band CDs will be available for purchase. Proceeds from the event will be used to help underwrite the Club's trip to Ireland planned for June 14 - 23.

Dominican English teacher Christian Tomsey and students Katie Bolan, Nate Bredeson, Will Bredeson, N'Jameh Camera, Jena Cava, Peter Grau, Anna Herzfeld, Mary Linn and Rachel Zembrowski will headline the evening as members of "Aislin Aoife," a nine-piece band specializing in Irish music. Aislin Aoife is Irish for "Dream Life."

Dominican High School is a leader in secondary education, providing young men and women with a quality, Catholic college-preparatory education in a supportive and nurturing environment. Founded over 50 years ago by the Sinsinawa Dominicans and based in Whitefish Bay, Wis., Dominican's diverse population draws students from more than 50 grade schools and four counties across southeastern Wisconsin.
