

Dominican Artists Recognized at State Design Contest

(May 22, 2007) – Seven Dominican High School students received recognition for their creations at the VISIONEER Design Challenge held April 27 at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. The event, sponsored by the Wisconsin Art Association, involves middle and high school students from across the state.

Senior Mary Clare Metscher received a first place medallion, the highest award for a long term project, for her design entry. Juniors Madeline Pagel and Emily Lasky received a first place team ribbon for a short term project. Two DHS teams also received second place ribbons. They were juniors Margaret Sather and Kendra Dawson, and freshman Juan Lozano and junior John Teppler.

The students and art department chair, Deborah Brooks, are pictured below.

