Co-ed Theatre Camps

Our camp instructors are DHS alumni who each left a mark while at Dominican and have continued developing their theatrical skills in college. They have returned to their high school to offer you a summer of building friendships, building self-esteem and building character within the magical world of theatre!

THE GROUNDINGS

Welcome to the world of theatre! Under the guidance of our creative and nurturing instructors, you will learn about the love, the dedication and the teamwork needed to be in a show. Students will begin simple training in classical drama, voice and movement, dance, comedic improvisation and all aspects of technical theatre including lights, sound and make-up. Space is limited....sign up early to hold a spot!
